Investment Philosophy

JAG seeks to identify and invest in a focused but diversified portfolio of securities which exhibit superior growth characteristics, strong fundamentals, and compelling price appreciation potential.

We believe that active portfolio management can deliver long-term outperformance through superior security selection. Capital markets can be inefficient in the short/intermediate term and JAG believes this creates differentiated opportunities for long-term investors. Our approach to portfolio construction is benchmark-agnostic, and typically exhibits high active share versus both the Russell 2500 Growth Index and the S&P 500 Index. This allows us to ensure that our best ideas can drive portfolio performance. The Small Mid Cap Growth strategy should be expected to exhibit moderate annual portfolio turnover, the majority of which is driven by our proactive sell discipline and risk-management parameters.

Investment Process

Portfolio holdings are sourced from US-listed securities with market capitalization of less than $25 Billion at the time of purchase. The strategy avoids investing in Master Limited Partnerships (MLPs) and Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs). Additionally, JAG does not invest in companies that manufacture tobacco, distilled spirits, or offensive weaponry.

Idea generation begins with a proprietary multi-factor model which is utilized to sort and rank all companies in our investable universe. The screen incorporates datapoints that we believe help identify companies with superior growth attributes, strong fundamentals, and compelling price appreciation potential. JAG's research team typically focuses its efforts on companies in the top quartile of factor model scores. Analysts then perform fundamental research on qualifying securities, to further identify the most compelling potential investment opportunities. Using this information, the team selects and maintains approximately 80 stocks on what we refer to as our surveillance list. As part of the ongoing due diligence process, companies undergo qualitative evaluation by the covering analyst. This involves a proprietary 18-question multiple-choice framework that requires analysts to record their impressions of each company's addressable market, competitive moat, management quality, transparency, business momentum, and magnitude of analyst conviction. This framework is updated for all current and potential portfolio holdings every 90 days.

JAG employs an active sell discipline. We continuously monitor a variety of sell triggers, including negative earnings or financial data, unexpected changes in top management, regulatory or legal issues, poor relative or absolute price performance, or disruption of a company's key products or services. We view our sell discipline as a key component of our approach to risk management.

Disclosures

The name of this JAG composite is Small Mid Cap Growth. There is no guarantee that an investment with the strategy will meet its investment objectives. Performance is reported in US Dollars. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Any investment contains risk including the risk of total loss.

All Sector Weightings, Top 10 Holdings, and Portfolio Characteristics are based on an actual representative portfolio of the composite strategy. The index comparisons are appropriate for the following reason: The Russell 2500 Growth Index measures the performance of roughly 2,500 securities issued by companies with market capitalization values averaging $3 billion. It is generally representative of the small to mid-cap companies in the US equity market. The Standard & Poor's 500 Total Return Index is an unmanaged index consisting of 500 companies generally representative of the market for the stocks of companies in leading industries of the US economy. These indices are used for comparison purposes only and are not meant to be indicative of a portfolio's performance, asset composition, or volatility. The performance of the Composite may differ markedly from that of compared indices due to varying degrees of diversification and/or other factors. Individuals cannot invest directly in any index.
